

Trade Data and Analysis Resources

trade.gov/trade-data-analysis

Easy-to-Use Trade Data Resources

Dig into trade data at the national, state, and local level with interactive, downloadable data visualizations

Industry Data

Discover data and analysis about your industry

Tools to Explore New Markets

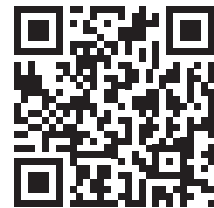

Find tools to help you research new markets for your products

The Impact of Trade

Learn about what kinds of companies export and how trade supports jobs

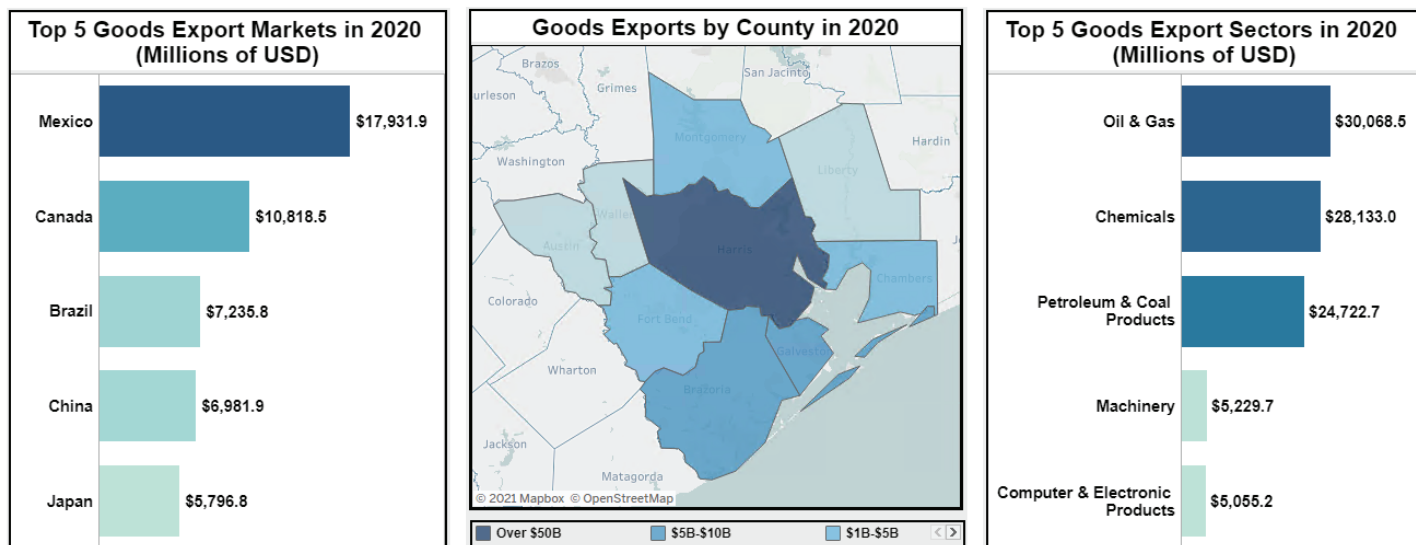

Scan the QR code below to visit the website.

trade.gov/trade-data-analysis

Industry & Analysis

Screenshot of the Metropolitan Export Tool

U.S. National Data

Quickly see the latest U.S. goods and services trade data and trends in the monthly infographic.

Explore U.S. international trade in more detail through TradeStats Express (tse.export.gov) to look at U.S. trade with the world for a specific product or the breakdown of trade with a specific country or region.

U.S. State and Metropolitan Area Trade

Explore trade at a local level with downloadable factsheets on a selected state or metro area's trade trends, including top export sectors and partners.

Use our interactive databases to dig deeper into the detailed statistics for a metro area or state.

Industry Data

Track economic indicators for 21 key manufacturing sectors with the Manufacturing Industry Tracker.

Explore sector-specific resources from our industry experts designed to provide the data most relevant to a given industry.

Tools to Explore New Markets

Use the Free Trade Agreement (FTA) Tariff Tool to find tariff information and product-specific rules of origin for your products under U.S. FTAs.

Identify potential new markets for your products with the Market Diversification Tool.

Exporter Characteristics and Jobs Supported

Analysis from our economists, including estimates of the number of jobs supported by exports based on the exporting state or export destination.

