

Assistant/Associate Professor Positions in International Business and Entrepreneurship at Ozyegin University, Istanbul, Turkey

The Management & Organization Group at Ozyegin University, Istanbul, Turkey invites applications for full-time positions in the fields of International Business and Entrepreneurship at the level of Assistant and Associate Professor, effective September 2020 or before. We seek candidates who have (or show evidence of building) an established international research reputation through publications at leading journals in their respective fields. Successful candidates are expected to teach core and elective courses in our undergraduate and/or graduate (MBA, Executive MBA, and PhD) programs in their respective field. Salary, research support and teaching loads are competitive and commensurate with rank and experience.

Requirements: Candidates should have a PhD in Business Administration or a related field from an internationally reputable university, or expect to complete their PhD by the starting date. Junior candidates are expected to demonstrate potential to independently conduct research and publish in high quality journals. Senior candidates are expected to demonstrate a record of publication in top-tier journals and effective teaching. All candidates are expected to have relevant teaching experience, to contribute to developing courses and programs, and to show commitment to departmental activities appropriate to their rank.

Application: Interested candidates should submit their CV, cover letter, samples of research (publications work in progress, job market paper), teaching evaluations (if available) and any other supporting material to applications-management@ozyegin.edu.tr. Candidates should also arrange three letters of recommendation to be e-mailed to the same address.

We will conduct preliminary interviews at the Academy of International Business Annual Meeting in Copenhagen (June 24-27, 2019). To schedule a preliminary interview, please contact Dr. Mehmet Genç at mehmet.genc@ozyegin.edu.tr. Selected candidates will be invited for a campus visit and research presentation.

Recruitment will continue on an ongoing basis until all positions are filled.
