

The Faculty of Economics and Business Administration offers the following position:

Junior Professorship (W1) "European Management" (m/f/d)

to be filled at the earliest opportunity.

The position holder shall represent the field of "European Management" in teaching and research.

In particular, the successful candidate will be responsible for the development and realisation of subject-related and interdisciplinary courses for the study programmes European Studies with cultural, social and economic orientation as well as participating in further Bachelor's and Master's study programmes within the Faculty, in particular in the study programme Management & Organisation Studies. The position holder will also be expected to teach social science methods.

The position holder should have an above-average doctorate in the field of International Management, Organisation, Strategy or Human Resources Management and have demonstrated competence by means of publications and further work on the subject of European Management, since this corresponds to the profile of the European Studies degree course programme offered at Chemnitz University of Technology.

Essential Skills and Experience:

- Activities and experience in the field of research (ability and willingness to acquire third-party funding, strong publication and lecturing activities, promotion of early-career academics),
- activities and experience in the field of teaching (in particular the ability and willingness to conduct courses in English),
- activities and experience in the field of knowledge transfer as well as
- the willingness to perform tasks relating to academic autonomy.

Desired Skills and Experience:

- International activities and experience in the fields of teaching, research and/or knowledge transfer,
- specific evidence of qualifications or experience in teaching,
- the ability and willingness to engage in continuing education,
- the ability and willingness to use new forms of teaching and learning as well as
- the ability and willingness to undertake public relations work.

The recruitment and appointment prerequisites are derived from Section 63 clauses 1 and 3 of the law governing the freedom of universities in the Free State of Saxony (Saxon Freedom of Universities Act - SächsHSFG). Applicants whose habilitation procedure has begun or who already have completed a habilitation at the time of application are disqualified from the position of Junior Professor.

The employment contract as a Junior Professor with temporary German civil servant status (Beamtenverhältnis auf Zeit) as an employee is initially limited for a period of four years and may be extended by a further two years upon the satisfactory outcome of an interim evaluation.

Chemnitz University of Technology assumes that the future position holder will relocate his/her main residence/family residence to the city/region of Chemnitz.
