International cargo planes regularly land and depart from Capital Region International Airport. Did you know that your products can fully clear customs right here in Lansing? In addition to a new licensed Customs House Broker, the Lansing Foreign Trade Zone allows for a large variety of services to facilitate your company's international trade--potentially saving you lots of time and money! Our panel of presenters will update you on the many new services available through the Lansing Capital Region International Airport and Port Lansing.

$35 registration fee includes break service & reception
